STATE OF WISCONSIN. THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION. BY THE GOVERNOR.

Through the goodness of Almighty God, health, peace, prosperity, and security to person and property have been secured to the people of Wisconsin the past year, and our industries have received abundant rewards. Because of these benefits it is due that we reverently and with sincere hearts thank Him for His blessings.

Now, therefore, in accordance with the proclamation of the President of the United States, I, Jeremiah M. Rusk, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby appoint a day of public thanksgiving and praise, and I recommend that on that day the people of this State abstain from their usual vocations and return thanks for the innumerable blessings bestowed upon them by the Supreme Ruler, and that they remember by substantial benefactions and kindly deeds, the poor and afflicted among them.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1887,

In testimony whereof, I have caused to be my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed. Done at the City of Madison, this 7th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

J. M. RUSK.
By the Governor:
RICHARD G. TRIMMER, Secretary of State.

MORE BOMBS FOUND.

The anarchists in Chicago are still desperate; and those under sentence of death seem to be as desperate as their allies outside. While the anarchists are circulating petitions which beseech Governor Oglesby to commute the death sentences, they are at the same time manufacturing bombs and secretly placing them in the jail with which to destroy life and property. Seemingly every precaution had been taken to prevent an occurrence of this kind, but on Sunday the cells of the condemned anarchists were searched and six loaded bombs were found hidden away in a wooden box. These were discovered in Ling's cell, and each was about six inches long, made of gas pipe and severely plugged at both ends. Ling made the bombs which did each deadly work at the Haymarket massacre in 1886. The spirit of the demon is still in him, and nothing but hanging will get it out of him. There is an air of mystery, it is claimed, as to how the bombs got in Ling's cell, but as his wife and little daughter were frequent visitors at the jail or allowed to carry in baskets alleged to contain cables, it is no wonder bombs were found in his cell.

The finding of the bombs has done much to change public sentiment among those who have favored a commutation of the sentence for the alleged reason that it would be public policy to imprison rather than hang. In other words, that class of people seem to think that Governor Oglesby should yield that much to the anarchists for fear if the seven are hanged, their friends will make trouble. This is a cowardly motive, but it is exactly the motive that influenced many men of prominence in Chicago to sign the petition for mercy. A dispatch from Chicago says that there has been a universal reaction of the commutation sentiment since the bombs were found in the jail.

It is hoped that this discovery will contribute some strength to Governor Oglesby's backbone. The impression has got in the air that he will commute the sentences preferring to err on the side of mercy than otherwise; but it is intimated that the governor is weak in the face of the desperate character of the socialist element in Chicago and elsewhere and for fear of trouble would rather give way to the anarchists than run the risk of further disturbance by the anarchists. This is a dangerous policy to pursue, but there are fears that it is the one which Governor Oglesby will adopt. But the events of Sunday may possibly give him strength in the discharge of his duty. Much for law and order depends upon the action of Governor Oglesby. The eyes of Europe and America are upon him. He can hang seven men, and thus defend the honor of the state and the majesty of the law, or he can commute their sentences and thus give encouragement to the making of bombs with which to bring about lawlessness and social revolution.

The world is anxiously waiting to see what he will do.

CLEVELAND IN POLITICS.

The heart of George William Curtis is aching. The job he has undertaken to defend Mr. Cleveland has to support civil service reform, turns out to be a bad job. Things do not work as expected. The statement he so often read that Mr. Cleveland was better than his party, is shown to be ridiculous nonsense. The party has the upper hand of Mr. Cleveland and he does whatever the party dictates. Not only that, but Mr. Cleveland's spirit and sympathy are altogether with his party and its methods and aims. The Baltimore election seems to trouble Mr. Curtis, and in the last issue of the Harper's he says:

It is the most painful part of this story that what the whole country has understood the president has not seemed to understand. Certainly it is not the duty of the president to interfere in any manner whatever with elections. But with equal certainty it is his duty to prevent his subordinates from interfering. Indeed it is only through such agents that he can interfere, and not to prohibit their activity is to acquiesce in it, and tacitly to give the weight of executive approval to their course and their course.

This has been the use made of the president's possibility in the Baltimore election. The Governor has been understood to not with his sympathy and support, and this assumption could not be refuted. Denial of his approval, however, would have been practicable if the Harper's had not, by his order, regard to the interference of office holders with elections had been promptly observed and corrected by him. But when Higgins and Harris and Thomas, the henchmen of Gorman, took an open part and were not reprimanded, it seems to us that the president permitted himself to be placed in a position of hostility to his best friends and to his declared principles.

Cleveland's declared principles were to establish civil service reform, for he has time and again not only put into office corrupt partisans, but when their true characters have been known, he has stuck to them with the closeness of a brother. If Mr. Curtis wants further proof on this point, let him read "the letter" which Mr. Cleveland has written to ex-Mayor Cooper of New York. This letter shows exactly how Mr. Cleveland stands in politics. The letter is dated November 2, and among other things he says:

You know I am very much inclined to abstain from any interference with New York city campaigns, fully believing the people of that city to be quite competent to manage their affairs. It surely ought not to be considered any interference, however, when I say in reply to your letter that the newspaper extracts which you inclose totally misrepresent my wishes and hopes in regard to the fate of your democratic local ticket. I shall be very much pleased to see it entirely successful. I know nothing which, if I were a voter in the city of New York, would prevent my support of Mr. Felt's candidacy without the least misgivings as to his fitness, and with considerable personal satisfaction.

How does Mr. Curtis like the ring of that letter? Here the so-called reform president, openly wishing the success of the bundle ticket in New York city. How is that for reform? Follow me a leader among the bribe-takers and the ring politicians of the city. How a defender of all the corrupt men who manage the city's affairs, and this is the man who Mr. Cleveland would be glad to see elected district attorney in New York city.

A Wisconsin bomb thrower has been found guilty. His name is Jambor. In June of last year, he attempted to murder Mr. M. M. Secor, of Racine, by placing a bomb on his driveway, and was arranged to be exploded by means of a friction primer, a string being attached to the primer and extending south across Mr. Secor's driveway to an iron rod, so that when he drove over it, it would explode. The additional facts are that by a premature explosion of the bomb, the man who set it was injured and traces of blood were found which led first to the late and then to one Police's house where it was learned a physician was summoned and the injured man proved to be Jambor. Jambor had long been in Mr. Secor's employ, but had been discharged and moved to Milwaukee where he was employed in E. P. Allen's office. His conviction came to Mr. Secor was therefore supposed to have furnished the motive for the crime and at the trial his testimony was produced showing that he had purchased explosives, had mysteriously strengthened the chain of circumstantial evidence which had previously been woven about him. A motive has been made for a new trial, and the sentence has not been pronounced.

The eastern people try hard to explain why a San Francisco firm can build ships as cheaply as they can be built in the east. One of the San Francisco firms made the explanation several weeks ago. It was that there was no day, summer or winter, in San Francisco that a laborer could not perform a full day's work. There is neither blizzard nor non-stroke to interfere. The winter is milder than the summer and every day is of a kind that a man can put forth his best efforts. There is another reason. There is no shipyard of the east that compares with that of the Union Iron works of California in efficiency and convenience. The story about cheaper English steel will not do. Sometimes English steel makers will unload a surplus stock at a loss, but that is no criterion of their regular prices.

President Dewey, of the New York Central railway company, recently promulgated a rule for recruiting the force of that corporation, by which the sons of employees shall have the preference over all other when vacancies are to be filled, or the force to be increased. The State Journal adds to this: "But this will not satisfy the socialist and chronic labor agitators. They declare that all employees are slaves, and to assure employment to the sons of employees would be, in their eyes, only the establishment of a form of hereditary slavery. Intelligent laboring men will see in this plan a great beneficence, but chronic labor cranks and professional labor agitators will denounce it as a new scheme of 'monopolistic oppression.'"

The supreme court of Indiana has decided that students attending school in any other county than that of their permanent residence are not entitled to vote at elections. Heretofore the students have always been allowed to vote in the county where they were attending school, but this is the first time the supreme court has ever passed upon the question. Hereafter, if the students vote, they will have to return to the counties of their respective residences. That has always been the law in this state.

A Madison dispatch says that Governor Rusk is flooded with correspondence from all possible sources, in reference to the Marinette infamy, but at present he will not tell what his plans are. He is not oblivious of the scandalous matter, however, and it is expected that he will send a detective to Marinette to make an investigation. When a report is made he will then take decisive action probably.

A Mormon temple was dedicated at East Delavan, an unpretentious wooden structure on Sunday, the services being conducted by Joseph Smith of Salt Lake. The Wisconsin latter day saints are not numerous and polygamy is not a part of their faith.

Grand success of the triumph of the WATER FAMINE.

Reports from Different States Tell of a Severe Drought.

RIVERS AND WELLS DRYING UP.

Human Beings and Live Stock Suffering Greatly from Thirst—Disease Induced by the Impure Condition of the Water Supply.

ALABAMA, Nov. 7.—This section of the country is now experiencing one of the most prolonged droughts in the memory of the oldest settlers. The effects are being felt throughout the wide area of country from Mobile, Ky., to the mouth of the Ohio river at Cairo, comprehending all of Southwestern Kentucky and a large section of Southern Indiana and Southern Illinois. In some parts of the state, the water supply has not fallen for more than four months. In the extreme western counties of Kentucky a deplorable condition of affairs is reported. Wells and springs have not only given out, but streams have disappeared for the first time in their history. Many of the people are compelled to travel several miles for drinking water, while the cattle and hogs are said to be dying by hundreds in a hopeless search for water along the beds of the water-courses.

Reports from Owensboro are equally discouraging. Old men, who have lived in that locality all their lives, and who never witnessed plenty of water, are now compelled to haul it four or five miles. Here, too, the stock are suffering greatly, and much fatality is reported from cattle diseases superinduced by the dry weather and impure water. Advice from throughout Southern Indiana indicates much suffering and privation. Vegetation everywhere is parched, water-courses empty, wells dried up, sawmills stopped, railway travel hindered by the water famine and live-stock everywhere distressed with thirst. In one section of Gibson and Pike counties the impurities in the little water to be obtained by cattle have encouraged that deadly scourge, milk sickness, which is now dominating the cattle of the White river bottom to an alarming extent.

Reports from Warlick County state that three-fourths of the population of Booneville are compelled to buy water for all purposes, the supply being hauled from Zigzag creek, a distance of seven miles. Water vendors have become a familiar feature, commanding the price of fifty cents a barrel. Painesville, Ill., Nov. 7.—The water famine in this neighborhood continues, a distance of several miles. Typhoid fever is raging in many small towns, and cattle are suffering. Water is now hauled from wells twenty miles distant. There is no hope for relief until snow comes. Chicago, Nov. 7.—The following crop summary will be printed in this week's issue of the Forwards' Journal: "The reports of our correspondents show a continued scarcity of water for stock in many sections, and especially in the States of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Iowa. Unless copious rains are experienced before the setting in of winter many farmers will find themselves involved in serious difficulty in providing necessary water for their stock. The continued drought in these States has also lessened the usual amount of fall plowing."

GLADSTONE CHEERED.

Cincinnati Applied an Allusion to the "Grand Old Man" by Rev. Dr. Parker. Cincinnati, Nov. 7.—Rev. John Parker, of London, in his lecture here Friday night, tactfully mentioned the name of Gladstone, when he was interrupted by long continued applause. Thinking the audience for their interest in the man and his cause he promised to say something more about Gladstone at the close of his lecture. He did so, mentioning that Mr. Gladstone's cause was receiving many new adherents in England and predicting that Mr. Gladstone would live to see his policy of home-rule in Ireland adopted. At Dr. Parker's suggestion a message of congratulation was mailed to Mr. Gladstone, and another round of applause was given for the "grand old man."

VICTIMS OF A TYPHOON.

Seventy Hundred Lives Lost on the China Sea. San Francisco, Nov. 7.—Mail advices per steamer City of New York, arriving from Hong Kong, state that a typhoon which raged on the night of September 17, struck the island of Hainan, with its full force. The total number of lives sacrificed is difficult to ascertain, but the general opinion is that some 100 or 200 persons were drowned on the island. At Chik Lung, some ten miles distant from Yung-King, thirty-two lives were lost and three passage boats sunk. The island of Hainan contains some 30,000 inhabitants.

The Queen is Grateful.

London, Nov. 7.—The Gazette says: "The Queen, through Mr. Matthews, the home secretary, wishes to express her warm thanks to the mayors and municipal officers of the towns throughout the kingdom for their zeal, loyalty, personal exertions and sacrifices which contributed so much to render her jubilee so conspicuous a historical event. The Queen is conscious how efficiently their efforts were seconded by the unflinching and cordial concurrence of all her subjects, whose affection and loyalty were never exhibited with more warmth, and will never be forgotten by her."

Will Not Be Favored.

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Nov. 7.—Ex-Marshall Miller, of Peru, Ind., who was sentenced to prison for two years for selling Charles Sumner, was accompanied to this city by a large delegation of Peru citizens, who offered a bond of $50,000 if the prison authorities would forego the usual ordeal in the case of Miller, but the warden ordered the convicts to be treated according to prison rules, and yesterday Miller was set to work.

Sullivan Reaches England.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—John L. Sullivan, who was a passenger on the steamer Cephalonia, from Boston, expressed himself as very indignant at the hostile language used by Kilkenny and Mitchell. He says that he wants to fight both of them in the same ring. He believes that Smith is a better man than Kilkenny, and declares that he means to take to America as champion of the world or die here.

Post-Office Receipts and Expenditures. WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Sixth Auditor McConville, of the Treasury Department, has submitted his annual report, which shows that the total receipts of the Post-Office Department from all sources for the last fiscal year were $48,837,000, and the expenditures, $32,301,677, leaving a deficiency of $16,535,323.

Compromise Effected.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 7.—A compromise has been effected between the coal miners and operators of Southern Illinois by which the former secure a little more than one-half the advance they have demanded.

We have sold Ely's Cream Balm about three years and have recommended it to more than a hundred special cases of skin trouble. CHIEF SWORD-BEARDER DEAD.

A Fight with the Crows in Montana—One Soldier Killed and Two Hurt.

CROW AGENTS, M. T., Nov. 7.—The Crow Indian affair came to a head Saturday, resulting in the complete routing of the Indian forces. The Indians held a big council Saturday morning among themselves and undisciplined any intentions to fight. General Roper sent an orderly to them and demanded the surrender of Sword-Bearder, the sixteen Indians who had fired into the agency building, and giving them one hour in which to comply. They agreed to deliver Sword-Bearder, but not the others. The Indians then returned to camp, and the white officers held their troops in readiness. Soon the raiding party could be seen riding up and down haranguing them. A few men were taken, and then the Indians returned. The time being up General Roper sent troops E and F down the valley on the left flank of the Indians gathered in the war party, which numbered about 150. A sharp battle followed, in which Corporal Charles Thompson was killed.

A running fight ensued, the Indians retreating, some to the peaceful gathering near the agency, and others crossing Clearing and taking to the hills. Sword-Bearder made a final stand at the crossing of the Little Horn, about one mile below the agency, in which he and probably three of the followers were killed. Sword-Bearder's body was brought into camp, but the other Indians are only reported dead. Most of the Indians crept about and returned to the agency, mixing with the other camps. There are now reported to be from twenty to thirty loose in the hills. Several troops of cavalry are now out close on their heels and they will probably soon be captured. There was about two hours actual fighting.

BATTLE WITH NEGRO STRIKERS.

They Shot Four White Men and Are Attacked by a Sheriff's posse and Militia.

New Orleans, Nov. 7.—A special dispatch from Pattersonville Saturday night said that four white men had been shot by strikers while attempting to carry mail. The strikers are now reported to be a posse of eighty men and the Attakapas rangers had started for that point. Yesterday a advance from Pattersonville said that an encounter took place between the sheriff's posse and the strikers. The strikers were on one side, and a crowd of negro strikers several of the strikers were apprehended, and the others were ordered to disperse, but instead of obeying they showed a disposition to resist. A sharp battle ensued, in which several of the negroes were killed.

HAVOC WROUGHT BY FIRE.

The National Hotel at Peoria, Ill., Damaged by Fire. Peoria, Ill., Nov. 7.—The National Hotel, which was built three years ago, at a cost of $250,000, was badly damaged by fire Saturday morning. The fire started about 6:30 o'clock from the kitchen, and ran up the freight elevator to the top story, where it gradually spread through the rear of the building, burning off the roof and communicating, due to the fourth story and slightly to the third. Elsewhere the hotel was not injured by fire, but a great deal of damage was done by water, with which the building was flooded. A number of guests and servants escaped their effects, but all escaped from the hotel in safety. The loss may not exceed $25,000.

The Cherokee at Peace.

St. Louis, Nov. 7.—The following message has been received from Tahlequah, on the Cherokee reservation, I. T.: "The dispatches published that war was imminent here, and that half of the inhabitants of Tahlequah had left their homes in consequence, is a monstrous falsehood throughout. Peace reigns and is expected to continue. Such false reports are designed to injure the nation and place." The dispatch is signed by a number of prominent citizens.

A Bank's Capital Empaired.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 7.—The Cincinnati National Bank has resolved to reduce its capital stock from $500,000 to $250,000. Bank Examiner Saunders, of Kentucky, discovered that the stock of the bank had been impaired 44 per cent, and he therefore ordered it made good by correspondingly assessing the stockholders or reducing the stock. The bank was left to choose between these alternatives, and it elected to reduce its capital stock 44 per cent.

Fat Stock Show.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—The annual National Fat Cattle and Horse Show, under the auspices of the Illinois State Board of Agriculture, will open in the Exposition Building next Tuesday, and continue for two days. The indications are that the display of fine cattle, horses, dairy products, etc., will be one of the most extensive that has ever been witnessed in the West.

Gould's Stormy Trip.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The Canadian steamer Umbria, on which Mr. Jay Gould is a passenger, arrived at Queenstown Saturday.
